In addition to this Handbook, you have received an entire packet of related materials from us in order to prepare for the wedding and the marriage that follows. Please bring all these materials with you to every meeting or consultation that you have at either Sacred Heart Church or St. Philip the Apostle Church.

We know that this time in your life brings with it special challenges. Sometimes, being engaged can present all sorts of stresses and tensions in your relationship. That’s because being engaged does not just describe yourselves but how you now relate to your families, your friends and your Church.

Nonetheless, thank you for the witness of committed love you provide to the world as an engaged couple. May God bless you as you prepare for married life!

Did You Know?

Pope Francis spoke to engaged couples at a Valentine's Day event at the Vatican in 2014.

Answering a question submitted to him, he said:

But if, instead, love is a relationship, then it is a reality that grows, and we can also say by way of example that it is built up like a home. And a home is built together, not alone! To build something here means to foster and aid growth.

Dear engaged couples, you are preparing to grow together, to build this home, to live together forever.

You do not want to found it on the sand of sentiments, which come and go, but on the rock of true love, the love that comes from God.

DIVINE MERCY PARISH

SACRED HEART CHURCH · ST. PHILIP THE APOSTLE CHURCH

First Steps

Whether you are a life-long parishioner of either Sacred Heart church or St. Philip the Apostle church, or you are new to Divine Mercy parish, these wonderful and exciting months of your engagement present an opportunity for you and your fiancé to celebrate each Sunday within the household of the faithful at Mass. The weeks and months leading up to the wedding are a unique time for you and for us as we pray together.

Seeing the Big Picture

Married Christians share in the mystery of unity and fruitful love that exists between Christ and his Church. They help each other to attain holiness in their married life and in the rearing and education of their children. They have their own special gift among the people of God.

Your life together arises from the irrevocable consent which each partner freely bestows on and accepts from the other. Christ raises this marital union between Christian spouses to the dignity of a sacrament so that it might more clearly recall and more easily reflect his own unbreakable union with his Church.

Christian couples, therefore, nourish and develop their marriage by undivided affection, which wells up from the fountain of divine love. They remain faithful to each other in body and mind all the days of their lives.

Sacraments

Effective signs of God's grace, perceptible to the senses, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church.

There are seven:

- ◆ Baptism
- ◆ Confirmation
- ◆ Eucharist
- ◆ Penance
- ◆ Anointing of the Sick
- ◆ Holy Orders
- ◆ Matrimony

Implications

Some important implications flow from what we believe marriage is. Those implications are:

- Christian marriage is an ecclesial reality.

It's not something two people invent or live on their own. Marriage is situated within the Church. It is nurtured, supported and enriched by the whole People of God. As you attend Sunday Mass together, praying with other committed Catholics, your marital relationship will grow, deepen and be wonderfully expressive of the relationship Christ has with his spouse, the Church.

- You have a special calling to build each other up in holiness.

In the joys and challenges of daily life, God will send you the graces necessary to offer your lives as a spiritual sacrifice, witnessing to the love of God for his people in the Paschal Mystery.

- Your marriage is a covenant relationship.

Just as God enters a covenant with his people, so do a husband and wife enter a covenant with each other. This means that your marital relationship cannot be reduced to that of a contract. Contracts are narrowly defined, based on a specific quid pro quo: if I give you this, you in turn, will provide me with that.

- Your relationship as husband and wife is expansive rather than narrow.

In other words, marriage impacts all aspects and areas of life for a husband and wife. No part of your lives is segmented away from the marriage relationship. Every part of the day is jointly claimed in the covenant of marriage for you both. By marriage you will each live through, with and in each other, every day, all your days.

Marriage

Covenant partnership between a man and a woman, whose goal is two-fold:

- ◆ the well-being of the two spouses, and
- ◆ the procreation and upbringing of children.

Validly entered into between two baptized persons, marriage is a sacrament.

Did You Know?

Because they are circular (without end), the exchange of rings in the Catholic wedding rite symbolizes the fidelity and permanence of marriage.

Did You Know?

In his listing of the many different sorts of virtues, Saint Thomas Aquinas ranked prudence as a virtue which is needed prior to love, for a person can love immaturely and without discrimination, but for it to be the best kind of love, prudence is needed first!

- Your covenant union as husband and wife is unbreakable.

It endures all the days of your life. There is no “shelf life” of Christian marriage. You always owe each other fidelity because a marriage that is entered freely and validly continues until one of the partners dies.

- Your marriage takes work.

Each day has its own demands, many of them competing. But no matter what pulls and pushes there are on your marital relationship, the bedrock that grounds the two of you as husband and wife consists of the undivided affection you show to each other.

- When children enter the picture, they bring their own special joy and happiness to your relationship.

Children also bring a unique push and pull on your marital union. But when mothers and fathers recognize in their children the heart of who they are as a couple, the marital covenant takes on a whole new character, one that is life-giving, affirming and participating in the creative possibilities of God for this world.

Covenant

Solemn agreement between human beings or between God and a human being.

This type of agreement involves mutual commitments or guarantees. The Bible refers to our relationship with God as a covenant, first mediated between God and Noah, then Abraham, and later, Moses.

Through the covenant with Moses, God revealed his Law to the people and prepared them for the fullness of salvation by the prophets.

The Mosaic covenant is fulfilled in Christ, who establishes a new and final covenant with God's people through his own sacrificial death and resurrection.

Fidelity

Condition of being faithful, fulfilling one's duties and obligations.

The term derives from the same Latin root word fides for “faith.” With regard to marriage, fidelity implies the faithfulness of spouses to each other so that they live up to the vision of the Church for this sacrament.

Booking a Date

When you call the parish office to book a date, you will probably first speak to our administrative assistant to fill out an application form. They will take down some basic information and forward your application to one of the priests or deacons.

At this point the date for the wedding is tentative.

The priest or deacon must review the application. If everything is in order and the priest or deacon is available to preside at the wedding, you will then be contacted so we can confirm that the wedding date has been set into the parish schedule.

Please do not print invitations or make a final reservation for the reception hall until your application has been reviewed and your date has been confirmed and set into our parish schedule. If circumstances change and you subsequently decide not to be married at Sacred Heart Church or St. Philip the Apostle Church please notify the office so that the date and time can be made available to others.

Church Requirements

Christian marriage is an ecclesial reality, a Church reality. It is not something any one of us invents. It is a gift, a sacrament given by God to God's people. As such, the Church has developed a rich tradition that surrounds and supports marriage.

For this reason certain requirements have evolved, such as:

1. You will be talking with the priest or deacon who will preside at the wedding. Please schedule an appointment with him as soon as possible.
2. Both of you will need to secure baptismal documents.
 - (a) For a couple where both are baptized Roman Catholic. You must each produce current (issued within the last six months) baptismal certificates from the parish where you were baptized.
 - (b) For a couple where one is a baptized Roman Catholic and one is baptized in a Christian ecclesial community. The Catholic must produce a current baptismal certificate from the parish where you were baptized. The baptized non-Catholic party must provide a document from their place of Baptism, either a letter or certificate.
 - (c) For a couple where one is a baptized Roman Catholic and one is not baptized. The Catholic must produce a current baptismal certificate from the parish where you were baptized as well as two affidavits. (See the following page for more details.) The one who is not baptized must have older family members complete two affidavits attesting to your non-Baptism. Affidavits can be filled out, by appointment, with any priest or deacon in a Catholic parish and forwarded here.

*Did
You Know?*

Pope John Paul II offers a major teaching regarding Christian marriage in his 1981 apostolic exhortation entitled Familiaris Consortio (The Christian Family in the Modern World). In it, he says:

The future of humanity passes by way of the family.

Did You Know?

Pope Benedict XVI addressed families who were meeting in Valencia, Spain in 2006, saying:

Human beings were created in the image and likeness of God for love, and that complete human fulfillment only comes about when we make a sincere gift of ourselves to others. The family is the privileged setting where every person learns to give and receive love.

3. Interfaith marriages and special situations will require additional paperwork. The priest or deacon who meets with you will advise you if this is necessary.
4. All couples must complete the FOCCUS instrument. FOCCUS stands for Facilitating Open Couple Communication, Understanding and Study. This is a tool to help you communicate openly about many things that are important to your relationship. It is not a test or a way to predict the future. It is designed to help you target the topics you need and want to talk about as a couple.

Affidavit

Formal written declaration made under oath by a witness before a priest or a deacon attesting to another person's freedom to be married.

Two affidavits are required, from parents or other family members, especially when proof of Baptism cannot be obtained.

- (a) Contact the parish office to sign up to take FOCCUS. (847) 446-0856.
 - (b) After you've both completed the FOCCUS documents, you will schedule a second meeting with Deacon McNulty to review your results.
5. All engaged couples who are being married in the Catholic Church are required by the Archdiocese of Chicago to undergo a formal program of marriage preparation. Once you have decided which FOCCUS session you will attend, you can also sign up for the marriage preparation program.
 - (a) The priest or deacon who presides at the wedding may himself lead you through a marriage preparation program tailored to your needs.
 - (b) Instead, if you wish or need to, you may attend the Archdiocesan Pre-Cana or Special Pre-Cana programs.
6. Couples are expected to meet with Ron Vanasdlen, the Director of Liturgy and Music, to prepare the details of the wedding liturgy. He will assist you in finalizing all of those details.
 - (a) Use the last section in this Handbook to select the prayer and scripture texts for the wedding liturgy.
 - (b) Complete a Master Wedding Worksheet and return it to the Director of Liturgy and Music, Ron Vanasdlen (rvanasdlen@divinemercynorthshore.org) about one month your meeting with him.

7. A Wedding Facilitator will guide the wedding party through the rehearsal. Make sure that all members of the wedding party arrive early for the rehearsal.
8. You must notify us in advance if you wish to have a priest or deacon from outside the Archdiocese of Chicago preside at the wedding, in order for us to secure a letter of permission from his superior.
9. If the bride belongs to a Catholic parish other than Divine Mercy, she must obtain a letter from the pastor of that parish granting permission to marry at Divine Mercy. (Or if the bride is not Catholic and the groom belongs to a Catholic parish other than Divine Mercy, the groom would need to obtain a letter from his pastor granting permission for the wedding to be held here.)

State Requirements

A marriage cannot be performed at Divine Mercy without a license from Cook County. When you visit the county offices, you will need your driver's license or some other valid proof of your age. If you are under 18, you will need the consent of both parents and a certified birth certificate.

You must pay in cash for the marriage license. It is good for 60 days. There is a one day waiting period to secure the license. No blood tests are required.

Dispensation

Formal permission granted by the Catholic Church so that an individual or group would be exempted from Church law.

For example, Church law requires all Catholics to be married in the Catholic Church only.

A dispensation can be granted, however, so that a Catholic marrying a Protestant could be validly married in a Protestant ceremony or so that a Catholic marrying a Jewish person could be validly married with a rabbi officiating. To obtain a dispensation you would need to first speak with a priest or a deacon about it.

Divorce

The claim under civil law that the indissoluble marriage bond validly entered into between a husband and wife is broken. A civil dissolution of marriage does not free husbands and wives from their valid marriage before God.

In other words, civil divorce does not make remarriage morally allowable. Only authoritative Church procedures (dissolutions through the Pauline or Petrine privileges, declaration of nullity or "annulment," or a declaration of a lack of proper form) can address whether a marriage is binding or not.

*Did
You Know?*

Jesus responds to a question about divorce.

See Matthew 19:3-12
and Mark 10:2-12

Did You Know?

Saint Paul's advice to Christian spouses at Ephesians 5:25-32 must be interpreted in light of his own day. It was a male-dominated society. Everyone took for granted that wives would be "subordinate" to their husbands. What is unusually radical and counter-cultural in Paul's advice is for husbands to "love their wives as their own bodies."

Preparing for the Wedding Liturgy

A wedding is one of many different liturgies of the Church. Liturgy is made up of song, Sacred Scripture, prayer and ritual—all of which have developed over centuries within the rich tradition of the Catholic Church. The specific components that go into the wedding liturgy are determined by this rich tradition.

Therefore, to help you put the final touches on the wedding liturgy, we offer several resources:

Prayer and Scripture Materials:

You have a number of options available to you, in choosing both the prayer texts and the Scripture texts. Please read through all the material on the following pages. Then choose those texts that best speak to you as a couple.

Wedding Liturgy Consultation:

As mentioned previously, you schedule this with the Director of Liturgy and Music. He will be happy to sit with you and share with you from his wealth of experience and training, various possibilities for music, as well as for other aspects of the wedding liturgy. Be ready to listen to music and make some choices!

A wedding, however, is more than the music. You will also consider all the details of the wedding liturgy, from the processional to the concluding prayers and recessional. Practical aspects, such as seating arrangements, flower placement, and photography will also be discussed if needed.

Tips on Planning the Music:

In determining music, the consultation will help you fit the context of faith and the dignity of the occasion. The appropriateness of each piece of music for use in worship requires a three-fold evaluation:

Liturgical: Is this particular composition capable of meeting the structural and textual requirements set forth by the liturgical books for this particular rite?

Pastoral: Does this piece promote the sanctification of the members of the assembly by drawing them closer to the holy mysteries being celebrated on this occasion? Is it capable of expressing the faith that God has planted in their hearts and summoned them to celebrate?

Musical: Does this composition have the necessary aesthetic qualities that can bear the weight of the mysteries being celebrated? Is it technically and expressively worthy?

Choosing the Form of Wedding Liturgy

The wedding liturgy may be celebrated in one of the following two forms:

1. MASS

Rite of Marriage takes place during Mass.

2. WITHOUT MASS

*Rite of Marriage takes place without Mass—
a Non-Eucharistic Liturgy.*

Before deciding which form you will choose, please consider the following:

- A wedding within Mass is usually celebrated when two Catholics marry.
- A wedding without Mass is usually celebrated when a Catholic marries a person from another Christian denomination, or when a Catholic marries someone who is not baptized. This includes one who is a Catechumen.
- When a deacon leads the liturgy, which is increasingly common, the wedding is celebrated without Mass even when two Catholics marry.

See the next two pages for the Order of Celebrating Matrimony for each form of the wedding liturgy.

Did You Know?

Saint Paul says that a wife has “authority” over her husband’s body and a husband has “authority” over his wife’s body (1 Corinthians 7:4).

The point is the intense mutuality and self-giving which should characterize Christian marriage.

Did You Know?

In the wedding homily a priest or deacon is expected by the Church to speak about:

- ♥ the mystery of Christian marriage
- ♥ the dignity of wedded love
- ♥ the grace of the sacrament
- ♥ the responsibilities of married people

Mass

Principal sacramental celebration established by Jesus at the Last Supper, consisting of two parts,

- ◆ the Liturgy of the Word and
- ◆ the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

When marriage is celebrated at Mass, the Rite of Marriage takes place after the Liturgy of the Word and is then followed by the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Celebration of the Eucharist

The core Christian liturgical celebration, which puts us in touch with the Paschal Mystery of Jesus Christ. Synonyms for this term are:

- ◆ Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and
- ◆ Holy Communion

THE ORDER OF MATRIMONY

(Non-Eucharistic Liturgy)

Non-Eucharistic Liturgy

Ritual celebration that does not include the Liturgy of the Eucharist and therefore no Holy Communion. In making a distinction between marriages celebrated at a non-Eucharistic liturgy and Mass, some people call the non-Eucharistic form a "ceremony" as opposed to a Mass.

When marriage is celebrated according to a non-Eucharistic format, a Liturgy of the Word is followed by the Rite of Marriage, concluding with the Lord's Prayer and a solemn blessing of the couple.

Nuptial Blessing

Special prayers for the blessing of a couple being married.

Did You Know?

The essential form of marriage (that is, the part of the wedding ritual that must be done for it to be considered a Sacrament) is the groom's and bride's consent and exchange of vows before a priest or deacon in the presence of two witnesses.

Everything else in the wedding rite leads up to that moment or amplifies it.

Did You Know?

In the post-resurrection appearance of the Risen Christ to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35) only one of the disciples is named, Cleopas. Some scripture scholars believe the other disciple was Cleopas' wife. Given the second-class nature of women in those days, she is "not as important" as her husband, hence her anonymity. Given this interpretation, the scriptural episode reveals the true equality and importance of women, since she is one of the first recipients of Christ's post-resurrection appearances!

Church Offering and Ministry Donation

About the Church Offering

Catholics understand that one aspect of discipleship is good stewardship, the responsible sharing of gifts given to us by the Lord. This includes supporting the mission and ministry of the Church. To that end, the following items are covered by your offering:

- FOCCUS
- parish accompanist
- wedding consultation with Director of Music
- parish cantor
- wedding worship programs
- administrative costs
- church donation

The standard offering for active parishioners (those who contribute time, treasure and talent) is $1,300. For inactive or non-parishioners, the standard offering is $1,800. Your Church offering should be dropped off at the Divine Mercy parish office (1077 Tower Road, Winnetka) at least one month before the wedding.

About a Ministry Gift

In lieu of a wedding favor, many couples have chosen to make a donation to a charity in honor of their guests and as a celebration of their witness to Christian marriage and the apostolic outreach to which all believers are called. We invite you to consider making a donation to our parish outreach, such as:

The Sarto Fund – Pastor's discretionary fund used to help those most in need within our parish.

St. Moses the Black Sharing Committee – Organizes efforts to assist our sharing parish, St. Columbanus, located in Chicago. St. Columbanus runs a food pantry. Divine Mercy parishioners are involved in tutoring in their grade school.

St. Benedict the Afrikan - Another sharing parish located in Chicago.

A Just Harvest Community Soup Kitchen –Volunteers from Sacred Heart help to cook and help serve dinners at this Rogers Park kitchen, which serves meals 365 days a year.

Haiti Ministry – Identifies and implements ways to support our twin parish and school, St. Jean Baptiste, in Sassier, Haiti. Volunteers from Sacred Heart travel to Haiti to provide assistance to this vital mission.

Father Paul Foundation – Supports the ministry of a Jesuit priest who served for several years here at Sacred Heart and who now works in his native Sri Lanka, assisting widows, orphans and victims of prolonged civil war and the tsunami.

Important Reminders to the Bride and Groom

Inviting the Priest or Deacon to the Reception – If you would like the priest or deacon to attend the wedding reception, please send them a formal invitation just as you would any other guest. They will respond accordingly.

Marriage License and Fee information – Bring the civil marriage license to the rehearsal and turn it in to the Wedding Facilitator. Additional instrumentalists such as brass, strings, or woodwinds, are paid separately. We can offer you recommendations for additional instrumentalists and contact them for you. Guest musicians (organ, piano, cantor) must receive approval from the Director of Music before they are hired.

Wedding Facilitator – The parish provides you with a Wedding Facilitator who will assist with the proceedings. The Wedding Facilitator ensures that the rehearsal and wedding run smoothly and beautifully. As the bride and groom, you will set the tone, so your own attention to the Wedding Facilitator will help to focus everybody else's. Also, major questions or ideas about the celebration should be handled well in advance with the Director of Liturgy and Music, who will in turn convey them to the Wedding Facilitator. This will save on rehearsal time.

Plan to be Prompt – Please be on time for both the rehearsal and the wedding itself. Plan ahead. Provide directions to the wedding party so that they can find the church. If a member of the wedding party or someone else who has a role in the wedding cannot be present for the rehearsal, make sure that they arrive one hour early for the wedding to receive their instructions from the Wedding Facilitator.

Arrival Times – Make sure the limo service or drivers are aware that the church doors open one hour before the wedding time. Groom and groomsmen must arrive one hour before the wedding. Bride and bridesmaids must arrive forty-five minutes prior to the wedding.

Scripture Readers – Make sure that the Lectors (readers of Sacred Scripture) receive a practice copy of their reading so that they may prepare ahead of time.

Gift Bearers – You may choose two to four persons to bring up the Gifts (bread and wine) to the priest during the Mass. The gift bearers might be chosen from family, the bridal party, or other friends.

Flowers in Church – The church is decorated in accordance with the liturgical season. Any additional flowers or plants you provide will be added to existing decorations. Parish flowers/decorations in place for the particular liturgical season cannot be removed or rearranged. Attachments to the pews must be made with ribbon or padded clips. Tape and wire may not be used as they damage the finish. The length of the aisle is 90 feet from the altar to the inner door. There are 25 rows of pews.

Restrictions – No flowers, flower petals or other materials may be thrown inside or outside the church. Not only do these present maintenance problems, they are dangerous on the sidewalks and steps and become a safety issue.

No aisle runner may be used in either church (Sacred Heart, St. Philip the Apostle) for safety concerns.

Did You Know?

Pope Benedict XVI spoke to families, saying:

*Dear parents!
I ask you to help your children grow in faith, I ask you to accompany them on their journey towards First Communion, a journey which continues beyond that day, and to keep accompanying them as they make their way to Jesus and with Jesus. Please, go with your children to Church and take part in the Sunday Eucharistic celebration! You will see that this is not time lost; rather, it is the very thing that can keep your family truly united and centered. Sunday becomes more beautiful, the whole week becomes more beautiful, when you go to Sunday Mass together.*

Homily at Vespers in Munich, Germany,
10 September 2006

Did You Know?

A major wedding anniversary such as the 25th or 50th is a fitting occasion for a special remembrance of the sacrament of marriage. Special prayers of blessing are provided in the Catholic ritual book for such occasions for use by a priest or deacon. But a married couple may request of a priest or deacon a blessing at any anniversary or any other apt occasion, such as when the couple goes together on retreat or pilgrimage.

Servers – Two servers will be provided. If you have special requests for servers, please let us know well in advance. A customary stipend is $10 for each.

Taking Pictures – Photographers and videographers are permitted before, during and after the liturgy, but will be asked to adhere to parish guidelines, as directed by the Wedding Facilitator. Flash is restricted to procession in and out of church. There should be a minimum of movement by photographers, so that they do not become a distraction.

They may not enter the sanctuary (the raised tile and marble floor areas) or the area between the first pew and the sanctuary, including the area where the chairs are placed.

Videotaping is permitted, but only with stationary stands/tripods. The camera stands are to be located on the main floor of the church in either the east or west aisles or in the choir loft.

No floodlights are permitted. After the wedding, you have a limited amount of time for photos, so please arrange with the photographer what pictures you want and who will be in them. Everyone will need to return to the worship space in church immediately so that pictures will be finished in the allotted time.

Live streaming is available through parish facilities at both worship sites. There is a $275 fee. The recoding will be made available to you with a link to download the recording.

Facilities – Brides arrive dressed for the liturgy. The Fireplace Room in the Divine Mercy parish offices (connected to Sacred Heart church) is generally available for the bride and bridesmaids. The offices also have a small bathroom and mirror. Likewise, the John Paul II room at St. Philip the Apostle church is generally available.

Afterwards, Take Your Belongings – After the wedding celebration, designate someone who will be responsible for collecting and taking home the extra worship booklets, unity candle, unused corsages, boutonnieres, as well as special decorations, and any other personal items. The Wedding Facilitator will help them.

Time Schedule – Weddings are ordinarily celebrated on Saturdays at 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., or 3:00 p.m. Because the parish gathers for a Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass at Sacred Heart Church, weddings cannot be celebrated later than 3:00 p.m.

Visiting Clergy – Catholic priests or deacons who are not assigned to Divine Mercy may certainly preside at the wedding. In accordance with Archdiocesan policy, priests or deacons from outside the Archdiocese of Chicago must provide a letter of good standing from their superior. In situations of mixed religions, the non-Catholic clergy are welcomed to attend the liturgy in a place of honor.

Proper Decorum – The church is the house of God and a place of public worship. Use of alcohol, other beverages, food and smoking are not permitted in the parish offices, the narthex (gathering space), lobby, church or the sacristy.

PLANNING THE WEDDING LITURGY

In planning your wedding liturgy, you will be choosing certain prayers and Scripture readings. You will also be meeting with the Director of Liturgy and Music, who will guide you in selecting music for your wedding liturgy. You will be given a MASTER WEDDING WORKSHEET to use in planning your wedding liturgy

CHOOSING PRAYERS

On the following pages of the handbook, you will find options for Wedding Prayers. You will need to select:

Collect (Opening Prayer)
The Consent (Vows)
The Blessing and Giving of Rings
Options for the Universal Prayer

If your wedding will take place within a Mass, you will also need to select:

Prayer Over the Offerings
Prayer After Communion

Indicate each prayer choice on the Master Wedding Worksheet by checking the corresponding numbered box.

You can download and complete the worksheet at divinemergymusic.org/wedding-program-form under the Planning Form Tab.

COLLECT (OPENING PRAYER)

(choose one:)

- A1 Be attentive to our prayers, O Lord, and in your kindness uphold what you have established for the increase of the human race, so that the union you have created may be kept safe by your assistance.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
- A2 O God, who in creating the human race willed that man and wife should be one, join, we pray, in a bond of inseparable love these your servants who are to be united in the covenant of Marriage,
so that, as you make their love fruitful,
they may become, by your grace,
witnesses to charity itself.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

P R A Y E R

Did You Know?

"I do."

In the wedding rite, a couple gives their consent to three essential aspects of marriage:

- ♥ their unity in an exclusive love,
- ♥ their intention to enter into a permanent or indissoluble bond, and
- ♥ their openness to having and raising children.

- B1 Be attentive to our prayers, O Lord, and in your kindness
pour out your grace on these your servants (Bride and Groom), that, coming together before your altar,
they may be confirmed in love for one another.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
- B2 O God, who consecrated the bond of Marriage by so great a mystery that in the wedding covenant you foreshadow
the Sacrament of Christ and his Church, grant, we pray, to these your servants, that what they receive in faith
they may live out in deeds.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
- C1 Grant, we pray, almighty God,
that these your servants,
now to be joined by the Sacrament of Matrimony, may grow in the faith they profess and enrich your Church with faithful offspring.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
- C2 O God, who since the beginning of the world have blessed the increase of offspring, show favor to our supplications and pour forth the help of your blessing on these your servants (Bride and Groom), so that in the union of Marriage they may be bound together in mutual affection, in likeness of mind,
and in shared holiness.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

THE CONSENT (VOWS)

(choose one:)

#1. I, Groom, take you, Bride, to be my wife.
I promise to be faithful to you in good times and in bad,
in sickness and in health,
to love you and honor you
all the days of my life.

I, Bride, take you, Groom, to be my husband.
I promise to be faithful to you in good times and in bad,
in sickness and in health,
to love you and honor you
all the days of my life.

#2. I, Groom, take you, Bride, for my lawful wife,
to have and to hold, from this day forward,
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish
until death do us part.

I, Bride, take you, Groom, for my lawful husband,
to have and to hold, from this day forward,
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish
until death do us part.

(choose one:)

- #1. May the Lord bless ☩ these rings which you will give to each other as a sign of love and fidelity.
- #2. Bless, O Lord, these rings, which we bless ☩ in your name,
so that those who wear them may remain entirely faithful to each other, abide in peace and in your will,
and live always in mutual charity,
Through Christ our Lord.
- #3. Bless ☩ and sanctify your servants in their love, O Lord, and let these rings, a sign of their faithfulness,
remind them of their love for one another.
Through Christ our Lord.

THE UNIVERSAL PRAYER

The Universal Prayer or (Prayer of the Faithful) are a set of prayers specifically directed to the needs of the world and the Church. Please indicate your choices on the Master Wedding Worksheet regarding the following three decisions:

1. Who will read the intercessions—

(#1a) a reader whom you will provide, or

(#1b) the presider himself

2. How the intercessions will be composed—

(#2a) you will compose your own intercessions by submitting them to the Director of Liturgy and Music for review, or

(#2b) you will use the text provided by Divine Mercy, found on the next page

3. Names of Deceased

Specify individuals you would like to name in the last intercession —

Write these names on the corresponding lines on the worksheet.

The Universal Prayer

Prayer of the faithful, the universal prayer, wherein the congregation intercedes for the needs of others before God.

The particular petitions which make up the Universal Prayer are usually:

- ◆ for the Church
- ◆ for civil authorities
- ◆ for those burdened by any difficulty
- ◆ for all people,
- ◆ for the local parish community
- ◆ for a particular need (such as a newly married couple)
- ◆ for those who are sick, and
- ◆ for those who have died.

See next page for complete text of the Universal Prayer provided by Divine Mercy.

PRAYER

UNIVERSAL PRAYER

Option #2b—Text provided by Divine Mercy Parish

- Presider: Now that we have heard God's Word and witnessed these vows of love, we continue to raise our minds and hearts in prayer.
- Reader: For the Church throughout the world, that it may grow in love and be a sign of God's presence, we pray:
Lord, hear our prayer.
- Reader: For our nation and the world, that it may grow in peace and justice, we pray:
Lord, hear our prayer.
- Reader: For [Groom and Bride], married today, for all married couples and all vowed religious, we pray:
Lord, hear our prayer.
- Reader: For all households and homes, that they may be a place of peace, compassion and loving kindness, we pray:
Lord, hear our prayer.
- Reader: For those unable to be present here, for the suffering, the sick and the dying, we pray:
Lord, hear our prayer.
- Reader: For all who have died, especially, [names of deceased], we pray:
Lord, hear our prayer.
- Presider: Lord our God, hear our prayers
and grant us what we need to live in faith, hope and love.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

(for Mass only—choose one:)

- A Receive, we pray, O Lord, the offering made on the occasion of this sealing of the sacred bond of Marriage, and, just as your goodness is its origin,
may your providence guide its course.
Through Christ our Lord.
- B Receive in your kindness, Lord,
the offerings we bring in gladness before you,
and in your fatherly love watch over those you have joined in a sacramental covenant.
Through Christ our Lord.
- C Show favor to our supplications, O Lord, and receive with a kindly countenance
the oblations we offer for these your servants, joined now in a holy covenant, that through these mysteries
they may be strengthened in love for one another and for you.
Through Christ our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

(for Mass only—choose one:)

- A By the power of this sacrifice, O Lord, accompany with your loving favor
what in your providence you have instituted, so as to make of one heart in love
those you have already joined in this holy union (and replenished with the one Bread and the one Chalice).
Through Christ our Lord.
- B Having been partakers at your table,
we pray, O Lord,
that those who are united by the Sacrament of Marriage may always hold fast to you and proclaim your name to the world.
Through Christ our Lord.
- C Grant, we pray, almighty God,
that the power of the Sacrament we have received may find growth in these your servants and that the effects of the sacrifice we have offered may be felt by us all.
Through Christ our Lord.

Choosing Scripture

Choosing readings from Scripture is an important part of the planning for your wedding. You will find a listing of the Scripture Selections for Weddings on the following pages of this Handbook

Notice that there are four sections:

Old Testament Readings (OT)

Psalm (PS)

New Testament Readings (NT)

Gospel Readings (G)

The first reading should be from the Old Testament (OT), except during Easter Time, when it is taken from the Book of Revelation (N-14). The second reading is taken from one of the New Testament (NT) selections. The third reading is taken from one of the Gospel (G) selections.

Whichever readings you choose, a Responsorial Psalm (PS) will be sung after the first reading. In addition, a Gospel Acclamation will be sung prior to the Gospel Reading.

At least one of the readings you choose must explicitly speak of marriage. These readings are designated by an asterisk (*). This requirement can also be fulfilled by selecting Psalm 128 as your Responsorial Psalm.

Indicate your choices on the Master Wedding Worksheet using the code for each particular selection, for example: O-3, PS-4, NT-4, G-2.

Finally, there are certain days during the year when the prayers and readings must be taken from the liturgy of that particular day.

Please be sure to read Appendix A to see if your wedding date is subject to any of these limitations. (p.43)

SCRIPTURE

*Did You

Whether or not a wedding is celebrated within Mass or without a Mass, it always includes a Liturgy of the Word because the Second Vatican Council directed that we hear from Sacred Scripture at the celebration of each sacrament.

OT-1

(GENESIS 1:26-28, 31a)

A reading from the Book of Genesis

Then God said:

“Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.
Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,
the birds of the air, and the cattle, and over all the wild animals and all the creatures that crawl on the ground.”

God created man in his image;
in the image of God he created them.
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying:
“Be fertile and multiply;
fill the earth and subdue it.

Have dominion over the fish of the sea,
the birds of the air,
and all the living things that move on the earth.”
God looked at everything he had made,
and he found it very good.

The word of the Lord.

OT-2

(GENESIS 2:18-24)

A reading from the Book of Genesis

The LORD God said: “It is not good for the man to be alone.

I will make a suitable partner for him.”

So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them;
whatever the man called each of them would be its name.

The man gave names to all the cattle,
all the birds of the air, and all wild animals;
but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of the ribs and closed up its place with flesh.

The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man.

When he brought her to the man, the man said:

“This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;

This one shall be called ‘woman,’
for out of ‘her man’ this one has been taken.”

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body.

The word of the Lord.

OT-3

(GENESIS 24:48-51, 58-67)

A reading from the Book of Genesis

The servant of Abraham said to Laban:
 "I bowed down in worship to the Lord,
 blessing the LORD, the God of my master Abraham,
 who had led me on the right road to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son.

If, therefore, you have in mind to show true loyalty to my master,
 let me know;
 but if not, let me know that, too.
 I can proceed accordingly."

Laban and his household said in reply:
 "This thing comes from the LORD,
 we can say nothing to you either for or against it.
 Here is Rebekah, ready for you;
 take her with you,
 that she may become the wife
 of your master's son, as the LORD has said."

So they called Rebekah and asked for her,
 "Do you wish to go with this man?"
 She answered, "I do."
 At this they allowed their sister Rebekah and her nurse to take leave, along with Abraham's servant and his men.
 Invoking a blessing on Rebekah, they said:

"Sister, may you grow into thousands of myriads;
 And may your descendants gain possession of the gates of their enemies!"

Then Rebekah and her maids started out;
 they mounted their camels and followed the man.
 So the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.

Meanwhile Isaac had gone from Beer-lahai-roi and was living in the region of the Negeb.
 One day toward evening he went out . . .
 in the field,
 and as he looked around, he noticed that camels were approaching.
 Rebekah, too, was looking about, and when she saw him,
 she alighted from her camel and asked the servant,

"Who is the man out there, walking through the fields toward us?"

"That is my master," replied the servant.
 Then she covered herself with her veil.

The servant recounted to Isaac all the things he had done.
 Then Isaac took Rebekah into his tent;
 he married her, and thus she became his wife.
 In his love for her Isaac found solace after the death of his mother Sarah.

The word of the Lord.

OT-4

(TOBIT 7:6-14)

A reading from the Book of Tobit

Raphael and Tobiah entered the house of Raguel and greeted him.
 Raguel sprang up and kissed Tobiah, shedding tears of joy.
 But when he heard that Tobit had lost his eyesight, he was grieved and wept aloud.
 He said to Tobiah:
 "My child, God bless you!
 You are the son of a noble and good father.
 But what a terrible misfortune that such a righteous and charitable man should be afflicted with blindness!"
 He continued to weep in the arms of his kinsman Tobiah.
 His wife Edna also wept for Tobit; and even their daughter Sarah began to weep.

Afterward, Raguel slaughtered a ram from the flock and gave them a cordial reception.
 When they had bathed and reclined to eat, Tobiah said to Raphael, "Brother Azariah, ask Raguel to let me marry my kinswoman Sarah."
 Raguel overheard the words; so he said to the boy:
 "Eat and drink and be merry tonight, for no man is more entitled to marry my daughter Sarah than you, brother.
 Besides, not even I have the right to give her to anyone but you, because you are my closest relative.
 But I will explain the situation to you very frankly
 I have given her in marriage to seven men, all of whom were kinsmen of ours, and all died on the very night they approached her.
 But now, son, eat and drink.
 I am sure the Lord will look after you both."
 Tobiah answered, "I will eat or drink nothing until you set aside what belongs to me."

Raguel said to him: "I will do it."
 She is yours according to the decree of the Book of Moses.
 Your marriage to her has been decided in heaven
 Take your kinswoman from now on you are her love,
 and she is your beloved.

She is yours today and ever after.
 And tonight, son, may the Lord of heaven prosper you both.
 May he grant you mercy and peace."
 Then Raguel called his daughter Sarah, and she came to him.
 He took her by the hand and gave her to Tobiah with the words:
 "Take her according to the law.
 According to the decree written in the Book of Moses she is your wife.
 Take her and bring her back safely to your father
 And may the God of heaven grant both of you peace and prosperity."
 He then called her mother and told her to bring a scroll, so that he might draw up a marriage contract stating the he gave Sarah to Tobiah as his wife according to the decree of the Mosaic law.
 Her mother brought the scroll,
 and he drew up the contract,
 to which they affixed their seals.

Afterward they began to eat and drink.

The word of the Lord.

OT-5

(TOBIT 8:4b-8)

A reading from the Book of Tobit

On their wedding night Tobiah arose from bed and said to his wife, “Sister, get up. Let us pray and beg our Lord to have mercy on us and to grant us deliverance.”
Sarah got up, and they started to pray and beg that deliverance might be theirs.
They began with these words:

“Blessed are you, O God of our fathers;
praised be your name forever and ever.
Let the heavens and all your creation praise you forever.
You made Adam and you gave him his wife Eve to be his help and support;
and from these two the human race descended.
You said, ‘It is not good for the man to be alone;
let us make him a partner like himself.’
Now, Lord, you know that I take this wife of mine not because of lust,
but for a noble purpose.
Call down your mercy on me and on her,
and allow us to live together to a happy old age.”

They said together, “Amen, amen.”

The word of the Lord.OT-6

(PROVERBS 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31)

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax and makes cloth with skillful hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

The word of the Lord.

OT-7

(SONG OF SONGS 2:8-10, 14, 16a; 8:6-7a)

A reading from the Song of Songs

Hark! my lover – here he comes springing across the mountains, leaping across the hills.

My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Here he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattices.

My lover speaks; he says to me, “Arise, my beloved, my dove, my beautiful one,
and come!”

“O my dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret recesses of the cliff,

Let me see you,
let me hear your voice,

For your voice is sweet,
and you are lovely.”

My lover belongs to me and I to him.
He says to me:

“Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm;
For stern as death is love, relentless as the nether-world is devotion;
its flames are a blazing fire.
Deep waters cannot quench love,
nor floods sweep it away.”

The word of the Lord.OT-8

(SIRACH 26:1-4, 13-16)

A reading from the Book of Sirach

Blessed the husband of a good wife, twice-lengthened are his days;
A worthy wife brings joy to her husband, peaceful and full is his life.
A good wife is a generous gift bestowed upon him who fears the LORD;
Be he rich or poor, his heart is content,
and a smile is ever on his face.

A gracious wife delights her husband,
her thoughtfulness puts flesh on his bones;
A gift from the LORD is her governed speech,
and her firm virtue is of surpassing worth.
Choicest of blessings is a modest wife, priceless her chaste soul.

A holy and decent woman adds grace upon grace;
indeed, no price is worthy of her temperate soul.
Like the sun rising in the LORD’s heavens, the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.

The word of the Lord.OT-9

(JEREMIAH 31:31-32a, 33-34a)

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel
and the house of Judah.

It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers:

the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt.

But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD.

I will place my law within them,
and write it upon their hearts;

I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives
how to know the LORD.

All, from least to greatest, shall know me,
says the LORD.

The word of the Lord.

NT-1

(ROMANS 8:31b-35, 37-39)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He did not spare his own Son

but handed him over for us all,

will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us.

Who will condemn?

It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
who also is at the right hand of God,
who indeed intercedes for us.

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?

No, in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

NT-2 LONG

(ROMANS 12:1-2, 9-18)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God,

to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.

Do not conform yourselves to this age
but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Let love be sincere;

hate what is evil,

hold on to what is good;

love one another with mutual affection;

anticipate one another in showing honor.

Do not grow slack in zeal,

be fervent in spirit,

serve the Lord.

Rejoice in hope,

endure in affliction,

persevere in prayer.

Contribute to the needs of the holy ones, exercise hospitality.

Bless those who persecute you,

bless and do not curse them.

Rejoice with those who rejoice,

weep with those who weep.

Have the same regard for one another;

do not be haughty but associate with the lowly;

do not be wise in your own estimation.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil;

be concerned for what is noble in the sight of all.

If possible, on your part, live at peace with all.

The word of the Lord.

NT-2 SHORT

(ROMANS 12:1-2, 9-13)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

The word of the Lord.NT-3

(ROMANS 15:1b-3a, 5-7, 13)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

We ought to put up with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves;
let each of us please our neighbor for the good,
for building up.

For Christ did not please himself.

May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord.

NT-4

(1 CORINTHIANS 6:13c-15a, 17-20)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord,
and the Lord is for the body;
God raised the Lord and will also raise us
by his power.

Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ?

Whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

Avoid immorality.

Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the immoral person sins against his own body.

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

For you have been purchased at a price.
Therefore glorify God in your body.

The word of the Lord.

NT-5

(1 CORINTHIANS 12:31-13:8a)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.

But I shall show you a still more excellent way.

If I speak in human and angelic tongues
but do not have love,

I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge;
if I have all faith so as to move mountains,
but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind.

It is not jealous, is not pompous,
it is not inflated, it is not rude,
it does not seek its own interests,
it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails.

The word of the Lord.

NT-6

(EPHESIANS 4:1-6)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters:

I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love,

striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit
through the bond of peace:

one Body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call;
one Lord, one faith, one baptism;
one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

The word of the Lord.

NT-7 LONG (EPHESIANS 5:2a, 21-33)A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters:

Live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us.

Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives should be subordinate to their husbands
as to the Lord.

For the husband is head of his wife
just as Christ is head of the Church,
he himself the savior of the body.

As the Church is subordinate to Christ, so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything.

Husbands, love your wives,
even as Christ loved the Church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the Church in splendor,

without spot or wrinkle or any such thing,
that she might be holy and without blemish.

So also husbands should love their wives
as their own bodies.

He who loves his wife loves himself.

For no one hates his own flesh
but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the Church,
because we are members of his Body.

For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.

In any case, each one of you should love his wife
as himself,
and the wife should respect her husband.

The word of the Lord.

(PHILIPPIANS 4:4-9)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians

Brothers and sisters:
 Rejoice in the Lord always.
 I shall say it again: rejoice!
 Your kindness should be known to all.
 The Lord is near.
 Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
 by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
 make your requests known to God.
 Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
 whatever is just, whatever is pure,
 whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
 if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.
 Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.
 Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.NT-9

(COLOSSIANS 3:12-17)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians

Brothers and sisters:
 Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved.
 heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving
 one another,
 if one has a grievance against another;
 as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.
 And over all these put on love,
 that is, the bond of perfection.
 And let the peace of Christ control your hearts,
 the peace into which you were also called in one Body.
 And be thankful.
 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
 as in all wisdom you teach and admonish
 one another,
 singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.
 And whatever you do, in word or in deed,
 do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The word of the Lord.

NT-10

(HEBREWS 13:1-4a, 5-6b)

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters:

Let mutual love continue.

Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

Be mindful of prisoners as if sharing their imprisonment,
and of the ill-treated as of yourselves,
for you also are in the body.

Let marriage be honored among all and the marriage bed be kept undefiled.

Let your life be free from love of money but be content with what you have,
for he has said, I will never forsake you or abandon you.

Thus we may say with confidence:

*The Lord is my helper,
and I will not be afraid.*

The word of the Lord.

NT-11

(1 PETER 3:1-9)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Peter

Beloved:

You wives should be subordinate to your husbands so that,
even if some disobey the word,
they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct when they observe your reverent and chaste behavior.

Your adornment should not be an external one:
braiding the hair, wearing gold jewelry, or dressing in fine clothes,
but rather the hidden character of the heart, expressed in the imperishable beauty of a gentle and calm disposition, which is precious in the sight of God.

For this is also how the holy women who hoped in God
once used to adorn themselves and were subordinate to their husbands;
thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him "lord."
You are her children when you do what is good and fear no intimidation.

Likewise, you husbands should live with your wives in understanding, showing honor to the weaker female sex,
since we are joint heirs of the gift of life,
so that your prayers may not be hindered.

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble.

Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult;
but, on the contrary, a blessing, because to this you were called,
that you might inherit a blessing.

The word of the Lord.

NT-12

(1 JOHN 3:18-24)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

Children, let us love not in words or speech but in deed and truth.

Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us,
we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.
And his commandment is this:
we should believe in the name of his Son,
Jesus Christ,
and love one another just as he commanded us.
Those who keep his commandments remain
in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit that he gave us.

The word of the Lord.NT-13

(1 JOHN 4:7-12)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God;
everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.

Whoever is without love does not know God,
for God is love.

In this way the love of God was revealed to us:
God sent his only-begotten Son into the world
so that we might have life through him.

In this is love:
not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us,
we also must love one another.

No one has ever seen God.

Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us,
and his love is brought to perfection in us.

The word of the Lord.NT-14

(REVELATION 19:1, 5-9a)

A reading from the Book of Revelation

I, John, heard what sounded like the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying:

“Alleluia!
Salvation, glory, and might belong to our God.”

A voice coming down from the throne said:

“Praise our God, all you his servants, and you who revere him, small and great.”

Then I heard something like the sound of a great multitude or the sound of rushing water or mighty peals of thunder,
as they said:

“Alleluia!
The Lord has established his reign,
our God, the almighty.

Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory.

For the wedding day of the Lamb has come,
his bride has made herself ready.

She was allowed to wear
a bright, clean linen garment.”

(The linen represents the righteous deeds of the holy ones.)

Then the angel said to me,

“Write this:
Blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb.”

The word of the Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,

You are the light of the world.

A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.

Nor do they light a lamp and then put it

There was a wedding feast in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short,
the mother of Jesus said to him,

“They have no wine.”

And Jesus said to her,

“Woman, how does your concern affect me?

My hour has not yet come.”

His mother said to the servers,

“Do whatever he tells you.”

Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons.

Jesus told them,

“Fill the jars with water.”

So they filled them to the brim.

Then he told them,

“Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.”

So they took it.

And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from (although the servants who had drawn the water knew),

the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said
to him,

“Everyone serves good wine first,
and then when people have drunk freely,
an inferior one;

but you have kept good wine until now.”

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee

and so revealed his glory,

and his disciples began to believe in him.

APPENDIX A

Choosing prayers and Scripture readings for weddings celebrated within Mass

Generally, when a couple contacts the parish to set up the date for a wedding, they already have a date in mind. Sometimes, a couple asks for this Handbook prior to even setting a date for the wedding.

There are certain days in the year when, due to the special liturgical character of that day, a couple cannot choose prayers and scripture texts from this guidebook. You can still celebrate a wedding on most of these days. However, the prayers and scripture texts must be taken from the day itself. So, for example, if you are planning to be wed on Ash Wednesday, you must use the Ash Wednesday prayers and scripture texts.

For the most part, couples will not be selecting any of these days in order to celebrate a wedding. However, if you do happen to choose one of these dates, please know that the above restriction applies only to weddings celebrated within Mass. In other words, if you are preparing to celebrate a non-Eucharistic liturgy (a ceremony), there are fewer restrictions.

To be honest, this restriction is not going to affect most couples because most weddings are celebrated on a Saturday. The special liturgical days that most likely would impact a couples' choice of texts would be those feasts which are not Sunday celebrations but yet that can potentially fall on a Saturday, such as December 8, January 1, March 19, June 24, June 29, August 15, and November 1 and 2.

Wedding Masses celebrated on these days cannot choose their own prayer and scripture texts. They must use the Mass of the day.

Prayer and Scripture texts from this Handbook may not be used on:

Immaculate Conception of the BVM [December 8]	Tuesday within the Octave of Easter
The Nativity of the Lord/Christmas [December 25]	Wednesday within the Octave of Easter
Mary, the Holy Mother of God [January 1]	Thursday within the Octave of Easter

APPENDIX B The Entrance Procession

The wedding liturgy begins with the entrance procession to the altar. To emphasize that the procession marks the beginning of a liturgical celebration, the procession now takes a liturgical form and includes the processional cross and all of the liturgical ministers, who process in before the bridal party and the bride and groom.

The groomsmen and groom are now part of the entrance procession, rather than standing in the front of the church to wait for the bridesmaids and bride to come to them.

Similarly, rather than having the bride process in with her father, to be “given away” to the groom, the bride and groom are encouraged to process in accompanied by their parents, to provide a vivid symbol of the Biblical view that both the bride and groom are “leaving father and mother and clinging to one another.” (Gen 2:24; Mt 19:5; Eph 5:31)

There are two options for the entrance procession.

Option 1 (Preferred)	Option 2
Processional Cross (if incense is used, the Cross is preceded by the thurifer) Altar Servers Lectors Deacon (if assisting presiding Priest) Presider (Priest or Deacon) Groom with his Parents ² Bridesmaids and Groomsmen Maid of Honor and Best Man (Ring Bearer and Flower Girl) Bride with her Parents ²	Processional Cross (if incense is used, the Cross is preceded by the thurifer) Altar Servers Lectors Deacon (if assisting presiding Priest) ¹ Presider (Priest or Deacon) Groomsmen Groom with his Parents ² Bridesmaids Maid of Honor and Best Man (Ring Bearer and Flower Girl) Bride with her Parents ²

1 If the Deacon will also be proclaiming the Gospel, he can process in carrying the Book of the Gospels.

2 For pastoral reasons, it may not be possible for both parents to accompany the bride or groom, e.g., due to the illness or incapacity of one of the parents.
