We would like the following thank you at the end of the Mass Booklet:

The outpouring of love and support we've received over the past year in preparation for this day has been so meaningful to us.

We are humbled and grateful to everyone who has shared in our joy as we embark on our marriage.

We are especially thankful to the many people who have traveled to be here to celebrate with us today.

To our parents, your generosity, selflessness and love have made us who we are today. The examples you set will guide us forever.

Our friends and family are second to none and we love you all.
